Capital Gain Tax

Capital Gain Tax

Basics

... tax on capital gain arises from the disposal (sale) of an asset

... including investment property acquired after 19 September 1985

Capital Gain Tax

Exemption

- Pre-20 September 1985 property
- Property for private use (family home)
 - Principal Place of Residence (PPR)
- Others

Capital Gain Tax

Non-Residents

- No longer eligible for 50% CGT discount on capital gains earned after 7 May 2012
- Still entitled to a discount on capital gains accrued before 8 May 2012, provided they obtain a market valuation
- Law passed on Friday, 28 June 2013

Capital Gain Tax

Example

- John is a non-resident for tax purpose of Australia.
- On 1 August 2006, John purchased an apartment in Melbourne for $400,000.
- John obtains a market valuation of the apartment on 9 May 2012. The market valuation is $500,000.
- John sells his apartment on 1 June 2017 for $650,000.
- John makes a total capital gain of $250,000. Capital gain attributable to the period prior to 8 May 2012 is $100,000.

Capital Gain Tax

Under the old law

John can apply 50% CGT Discounts in respect to all capital gains.

John's assessable capital gain is $125,000 (50% of $250,000).

Capital Gain Tax

Under the new law

John can only apply 50% CGT Discount in respect to $100,000 as it is attributable to the period prior to 8 May 2012.

John's assessable capital gain is $200,000 (50% of $100,000 + 100% of $150,000).

Capital Gain Tax

Selling of property

- Use of carried forward loss (rental) to offset future capital gains
- DON'T SELL! Property is long term investments.
- Re-invest using equity of pay-off properties
- Time your selling

Update

FIRB Changes

Foreign Investment Review Board changes
